

CRUELTY-FREE COSMETICS GUIDE

conscious beauty with a purpose

1 production

Our commitment to cruelty-free cosmetics starts with production. The Thrive Lab in Los Angeles controls all steps of manufacturing

2 quality testing

Thrive Causemetics is certified by Cruelty Free International. Look for their Leaping Bunny logo on all our packaging.

3 clear labeling

Look for our turquoise label. We have clean beauty in our DNA. All products are free of damaging toxins making our cosmetics safe for humans & animals.

4 inclusive

Our cruelty-free products have a purpose. With every purchase, we give back to help other women in local communities thrive.

5 sustainable

Our commitment to cruelty-free products helps empower women and is just plain good business for a better tomorrow.
